PLEASED WITH MASON COUNTY HIGH SCHOOLS.

Prof. McHenry Roads, State Inspector of High Schools, left this morning after visiting our various county High Schools. Mr. Roads speaks in the highest terms of our schools and is well pleased with their work.

LIGHTNING CHANGE STUNTS PER-FORMED BY ENOS' AUTO.

Enos Taylor, of Higginsport, Ohio, had his new electric starter auto up in this city yesterday, on Sutton street.
Enos was showing the boys how the "critter" worked. You push the button and the machine does the rest.
Enos pressed the button and before he could stop it, it had backed over against Dr. W. C. Patten's runabout, smashing a rear wheel to kindling wood. Out near Springdale he frightened the mail carrier's horse, the mail carrier was thrown out and bruised. All in all it was rather an expensive day for the four men.

SCHOOL COMMENCEMENT

At Germantown Drew Large Audience.
—Prof. McHenry Roads Delivered Address.

The commencement exercises of the Germantown school are in progress this week.

The school under the principalship of Prof. Mullikin has had a very successful term which speaks well for the principal and his able corps of teachers.
Last night was the entertainment night. The large auditorium at the K. of P. Hall was tastefully decorated with the class colors.

After serving the large crowd with delicious punch, several vocal selections by the pupils of the school were rendered in a manner highly pleasing to the audience and creditably to the pupils.

Prof. Mullikin called Prof. T. J. Currey to the platform, who in a few timely remarks spoke of the progress of the school.

Prof. McHenry Roads, State Inspector of High Schools, spoke on consolidation and transportation and presented the problem in its concrete form. Mr.
Roads is a pleasant speaker and appeals to the reason of his hearers.

County School Superintendent, Miss Jessie O. Yancey followed in a neat speech telling what Mason County had accomplished in the way of consolidation work. Then came the orator of the evening, Hon. Thomas D. Slattery. Mr.
Slattery never more earnestly, forcibly or eloquently pled for his clients at the bar of justice than he did for his clients, the ones that could not speak for themselves—the little boys and girls. It was a masterly argument.

Consolidation received a very earnest support and it is to be hoped that it will carry when the vote is taken.

FASHION SAYS

trim the new blouse or dress in white organdie—collar, yoke, vest, sleeves. Fine French organdy, very sheer, 68 inches wide, 85c yd.

Foulard Silk

Old and yet new, for it is one of the always popular silks. Designs were never prettier than this season. Soft and supple it falls into lustrous folds. Cool, serviceable, doesn't wrinkle. Why it's a joy to wear a dress of such material. Several qualities, 39c to $1.00 yd.

Summer Dress Fabrics

Never were foreign designs copied so accurately in inexpensive materials. For instance, some cotton voile in irresistibly pretty patterns and colors is only 25c a yard. In quaint medallion designs, tinted backgrounds with a dainty flower through it; pencil stripes in different colors, or dots in different sizes; and other attractive designs, suitable for street or house dresses.
